

Foundations of Practice

*Community Development
Core Competencies for Extension Professionals in the North Central Region*

Welcome to Session 1 of Understanding Communities and their Dynamics. We will begin promptly at 1:30 p.m.

Overview

SLIDE

2

The North Central CRD program leaders recognized the increasing need for Extension professionals to have basic knowledge and skills in the processes, tools and techniques of community development work. In 2003, they undertook action to develop a multi-state effort to meet these needs.

Foundations
of
Practice

Community Development
Core Competencies
for Extension
Professionals in the
North Central Region

© 2005 NCRCD

Overview

SLIDE

3

Working in collaboration with the other Regional Rural Development Centers and CSREES-USDA, a conceptual framework was developed, and a white paper was written and presented at the NACDEP conference in February 2004. This conceptual framework is titled The Foundations of Practice.

Foundations
of
Practice

Community Development
Core Competencies
for Extension
Professionals in the
North Central Region

© 2005 NCRCRD

Components of The Foundations of Practice

SLIDE

4

1. Understanding Communities and Their Dynamics
(Offered through distance education in March and September 2007.)
2. Developing Successful Community Initiatives
(Train-the-trainers workshop, Nov. 1-3, 2006; trainings offered in states.)
3. Areas of Specialization and Emphasis
(Offered through various regional workshops; interest groups; Asset Inventory.)

Foundations
of
Practice

Community Development
Core Competencies
for Extension
Professionals in the
North Central Region

© 2005 NCRCD

Component 1

SLIDE

5

Understanding Community and their Dynamics is a series of seven core competencies that focus on the ability to understand:

- Community of place.
- The dynamics and interdependencies of the various segments of the community.
- Basics elements of working successfully in community.

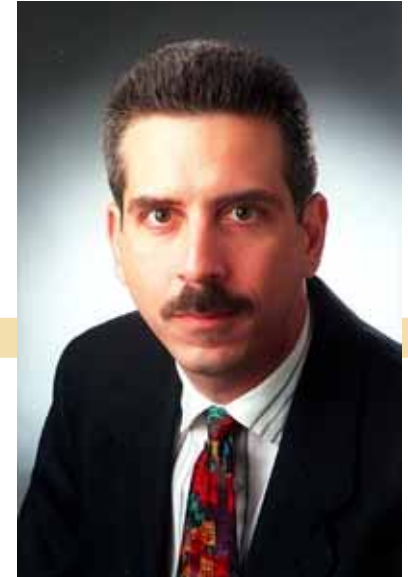

Foundations
of
Practice

Community Development
Core Competencies
for Extension
Professionals in the
North Central Region

© 2005 NCRCRD

Session 1

Steve Jeanetta

SLIDE

6

Introduction to the Series and Basic Understanding of Community

March 13 and 14, 2007

1:30 to 3 p.m. CST

The ability to more fully understand the complexity and dynamics of issues and situations in a community context is important to be able to develop effective programs.

Foundations
of
Practice

Community Development
Core Competencies
for Extension
Professionals in the
North Central Region

© 2005 NCRCRD

Session 2

Andy Lewis

SLIDE

7

Community Demographics

March 20 and 21

1:30 to 3 p.m. CST

Foundations
of
Practice

Community Development
Core Competencies
for Extension
Professionals in the
North Central Region

© 2005 NCRCD

The ability to understand demographic profile and trends in a community is essential to identifying issues and sustainable alternatives.

Session 3

Bill Pinkovitz

SLIDE

8

Community Economics

March 27 and 28

1:30 to 3 p.m. CST

Foundations
of
Practice

Community Development
Core Competencies
for Extension
Professionals in the
North Central Region

© 2005 NCRCD

The ability to understand the economic base of a community and the dynamics between the various economic sectors—including the ways in which money turns over in the community, leaves the community, or is invested—are important to providing a vibrant economy.

Session 4

Janet Ayres

SLIDE

9

Community Power Structure

April 3 and 4

1:30 to 3 p.m. CST

The ability to identify who the decision makers are in the community, the resources they affect, and the power structure is crucial in gaining access to a community, gaining trust and credibility, and being effective in educational programs.

Foundations
of
Practice

Community Development
Core Competencies
for Extension
Professionals in the
North Central Region

© 2005 NCRCD

Session 5

SLIDE 10

Community Situational Analysis

April 10 and 11

1:30 to 3 p.m. CST

Anne Heinze Silvis

Foundations
of
Practice

Community Development
Core Competencies
for Extension
Professionals in the
North Central Region

© 2005 NCRCRD

The ability to analyze a particular issue or situation in a community from a historical, political, cultural and community context and determine Extension's role in the issue is an important competency of community development.

Session 6

Mary Emery

SLIDE

11

Community Sustainability

April 24 and 25

1:30 to 3 p.m. CST

Foundations
of
Practice

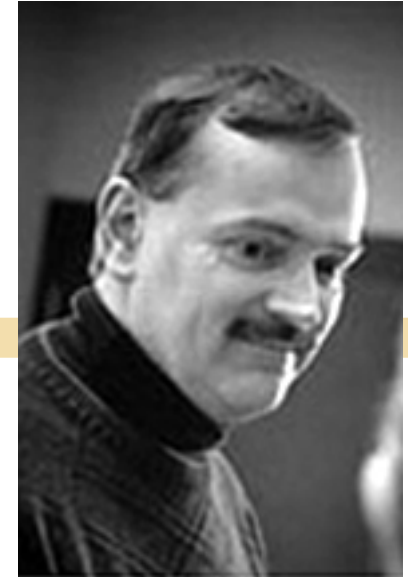

Community Development
Core Competencies
for Extension
Professionals in the
North Central Region

© 2005 NCRCD

The ability to understand the impact of decisions on the long-term sustainability of the environment is an important component of community development.

Session 7

Tim Borich

SLIDE 12

Community Development Process

May 1 and 2

1:30 to 3 p.m. CST

The ability to know how to organize and mobilize resources for action, as well as possible barriers, is necessary in developing programs that are meaningful and effective.

Foundations
of
Practice

Community Development
Core Competencies
for Extension
Professionals in the
North Central Region

© 2005 NCRCRD

Certificate of Completion

SLIDE 13

A Certificate of Completion will be given to those who successfully complete at least six of seven sessions.

Foundations
of
Practice

Community Development
Core Competencies
for Extension
Professionals in the
North Central Region

© 2005 NCRCD

Archives

SLIDE 14

Archives will be available after each session. The URL to each archive will be sent to all participants as soon as possible following each session.

Foundations
of
Practice

Community Development
Core Competencies
for Extension
Professionals in the
North Central Region

© 2005 NCRCD

