■ SRDC Items of Interest

- Newest Round of Southern SARE/SRDC Sustainable Community Innovation Grants Awarded

The Sustainable Community Innovation Grants funded jointly by Southern SARE and the Southern Rural Development Center have just been awarded. The seven 2005 recipients, along with the project descriptions, can be viewed on the Southern SARE website at <http://www.griffin.peachnet.edu/sare/winnerfiles/05winners/2005sciwinners.htm>.

- Registration Is Now Open for the Rescheduled Southern Institute for Rural Development! -- April 24-26, 2006

Previously postponed due to Hurricane Katrina, the Southern Institute for Rural Development has now be rescheduled for April 24-26, 2006, in West Monroe, LA. Hosted by USDA Rural Development in Louisiana, in cooperation with the SRDC, this institute is designed for professionals who are, or wish to become, actively involved in rural development work at the local, multi-parish (county), state or regional level. This conference will provide participants a more in-depth understanding of topics that are vital to the long-term health of rural areas: strengthening rural economies, developing resilient communities, embracing change in population diversity, and building on local talents and strenghts. For more information visit <http://srdc.msstate.edu/sird06/>.

■ Other Items of Interest

- 2006 ESRI GIS Grant Program for U.S. 4-H

ESRI announces two grant options for the ESRI GIS Grant Program, designed for U.S. 4-H in cooperation with National 4-H Headquarters, Cooperative State Research, Education, and Extension Service (CSREES)/U.S. Department of Agriculture (USDA) to support its geospatial outreach, education, and community involvement efforts. The goal of this program is to foster and support the integration of geographic information system (GIS) software in U.S. 4-H clubs. Grant categories include an introductory grant for 4-H clubs new to GIS and global positioning systems (GPS) and an intermediate grant for those 4-H clubs that received previous ESRI 4-H grants and completed the grant requirements. Eligible Applicants: A U.S. 4-H community or in-school club, 4-H after-school program, 4-H special interest group, 4-H school enrichment group, 4-H camp, or similar 4-H unit that meets regularly and is recognized as an authorized 4-H group within its state's 4-H program. The application period is January 1–March 31, 2006. More details can be found at http://www.esri.com/grants/esri/06003\_4-h\_fy06.html.

- Committee on National Statistics Final Report on Food Security Measurement

The Committee on National Statistics (of the National Research Council) just released the final report of its Panel to Review USDA's Measurement of Food Insecurity and Hunger. ERS, along with USDA's Food and Nutrition Service, requested the National Research Council to convene this panel in the interest of ensuring that USDA's data collection and methodology in the areas of food security and hunger are relevant and scientifically sound. The report, titled "Food Insecurity and Hunger in the United States: An Assessment of the Measure" is available on the National Academy Press website at <http://fermat.nap.edu/catalog/11578.html>. (NOTE: You can read the report page by page or download the entire report. The download is free, but requires a simple registration.) Additionally, the summary of recommendations from the Executive Summary of the report can be found on the ERS website at <http://www.ers.usda.gov/briefing/foodsecurity>.

- National Low Income Housing Coalition's Out of Reach 2005

Despite the emphasis on homeownership and the marginalization of renters, renter households still make up fully one-third of the households in the United States – nearly 36 million households. Out of Reach is a side-by-side comparison of wages and rents in every county, Metropolitan Area (MSAs/HMFAs), combined nonmetropolitan area and state in the United States. Established in 1974, the National Low Income Housing Coalition is dedicated solely to ending America's affordable housing crisis. NLIHC is committed to educating, organizing, and advocating to ensure safe, decent, affordable housing within healthy neighborhoods for everyone. NLIHC provides up-to-date information, formulates policy and educates the public on housing needs and strategies for solutions. View this report on the NLIHC website at <http://www.nlihc.org/oor2005/>.

- New RUPRI Report Focuses on Funding Sources for Rural Development

A new report from the Rural Policy Research Institute highlights the wide variety of funding sources states have used to fund recent rural development initiatives. Among the initiatives highlighted are Arkansas' revolving loan funds to improve rural healthcare, the One Georgia Authority and Georgia Entrepreneur and Small Business Coordinating Network, Mississippi's Rural Impact Fund, the Virginia Works Initiative, and North Carolina's Institute for Rural Entrepreneurship, Water 2030 Initiative, Economic Infrastructure Fund, and e-NC Authority. Download the report at <http://www.rupri.org/ruralPolicy/publications/HowStatesFundInitiatives.pdf>.

- Southern Growth Policy Board Launches 2006 On-Line Survey

Southern Growth Policies Board has launched its 2006 on-line survey at <http://www.southern.org/main/surveyintro.shtml> to poll Southern citizens on their attitudes towards innovation and technology, and their role in the economic future of the region. Share your opinions and ideas on strategies for increasing the role of innovation and technology in Southern businesses, universities and governments, and the potential of technology to create jobs and wealth in our communities. The 12-question survey only takes a few minutes to complete, and your thoughts will be included in Southern Growth's 2006 Report on the Future of the South and in presentations at the Southern Innovation Summit conference on June 4-6, 2006 in New Orleans, Louisiana. To learn more about the Southern Innovation Summit conference and Southern Growth Policies Board, visit <http://www.southern.org/conf.asp>.
