A Note From the Web Team

The SRDC Web Team has received notice that our Around the South newsletter appears incorrectly in some email clients. Around the South subscribers who use Lotus Notes to manage their email are most likely to have this problem. While very few problems of this type have been reported, we want everyone to have a chance to view Around the South. If you are experiencing problems, keep in mind that Around the South is always available on our Web site at http://srdc.msstate.edu/newsletters/around_the_south.htm If you would prefer to receive a text only version of the newsletter, click here. We apologize for any inconvenience and thank you again for subscribing to Around the South.

SRDC Items of Interest

- SRDC Continues to Add Valuable Resources to New Web Site
In a continuing effort to deliver the most up-to-date information and resources via the Web, we at the SRDC continue to seek out useful items to include under our three priority areas. If you have resources that you feel might be appropriate for us to include on our site, please let us know! Just send the relevant info, including a link, to publications@srdc.msstate.edu

Other Items of Interest

- U.S. Census Bureau Report Details Nation's Population Growth
A report recently released by the U.S. Census Bureau states that from 2006-2007, 70 of the 100 fastest growing counties in the nation were located in the South. Read the press release and find links to detailed tables and state contacts at <http://www.census.gov/Press-Release/>
- USDA Economic Research Service Releases State Fact Sheets
