Other key ideas/themes from the other groups
Ideas/Themes that the group selected for consideration as part of the vision statement
Initial Draft of a Vision Statement:

Vision Statement Selection

Carefully study the ideas/themes the groups have listed on the flip charts. You will see a good list of items the small groups have identified as being possible components to include in a vision statement.

Each group has been assigned a letter – such as Group A, Group B, and so on. Each group has also numbered each of their ideas/themes.

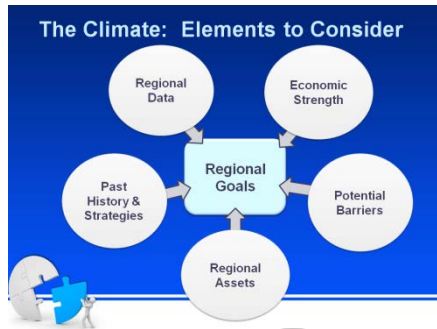

After reviewing the information contained on each group’s flip chart, write down the THREE ideas/themes you feel should be incorporated into your team’s vision statement. Feel free to select ideas/themes from any of the charts posted on the wall. No need to stay confined to the ones your group generated.

Write in the box below the letter and number of three ideas/themes you’ve selected (for example Group A – 3, which means you have selected the third idea/theme from Group A’s list). These don’t have to be listed in any priority order.

Three Groups and Themes You’ve Selected

Please submit your completed form to the instructor. The Vision Statement Committee will review your recommendations and report the final results to the regional team.
