| VHAT | IS HEIRS PROPERTY | | | | | |
| generation person pa property generation | operty is property (land and buildings on the land) passed down informally from generation to on, generally without a will. The property is usually inherited as heirs' property because the eassed without a will, or the will was not properly administered or probated. All heirs own the equally and must all agree to how the property is used, maintained, or sold. Across multiple ons more and more heirs' pass away and a single property can be owned by hundreds of This makes it challenging to identify and locate all legal heirs or make decisions about the | | | | | |
| - | have an interest/ownership in an heirs' property if you answer "yes" to any combination of ving statements. | | | | | |
| | I share ownership with relatives or others of a property that I inherited or was left to me by a relative or other person that passed away. | | | | | |
| | The relative that passed away did not have a will that gave me ownership of the property. | | | | | |
| | I own the entire property jointly with others (without separate or divided parcels/tracts of land and no separate titles or deeds). | | | | | |

| | Most or all decisions about the property require the approval or agreement from others (siblings, cousins, parent, or other relative or associate)? | | | |
